

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Was this officer asked to take leave pending enquiry or was he asked to take leave after the enquiry was called upon? And was the Director asked to take leave in writing or orally?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—Please repeat the question.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Was this officer asked to take leave? If so was he asked to take leave in writing or was he orally asked to take leave?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—It is a matter of detail before the Enquiry Officer. So far as the Government is concerned, the Government is not aware of the details.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Was it at his own instance that leave was granted or did the Government ask him to take leave?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—He asked for leave and leave was granted.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Did Government ask him to take leave or did they not?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—So far as the departmental enquiry is concerned, my Hon'ble friend knows about the details as to how officers are treated. He was asked to take leave, failing which he would have been suspended.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—My question was whether Government asked him to take leave and if so whether it was in writing or orally?

(Interruption)

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Did Government ask him to take leave or leave was taken on his own accord?

Sri R. M. PATIL.—Because his presence was a little embarrassing so far as the enquiry was concerned he was asked to take leave. Every officer knows how departmental enquiries are conducted.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I will hold over the question. It will be taken up tomorrow. Question time is over.
